

MARYLAND INSURANCE ADMINISTRATION PRODUCER LICENSING

TITLE PRODUCER LICENSE RENEWAL

- Applicants for a license renewal must meet all of the same requirements as an applicant for an initial Title Producer's License.
- The total fee to renew a license is $69. This includes the $54 renewal fee and the $15 fraud prevention fee. Licensees who fail to submit a timely renewal may late renew for up to one year after the license has expired. Those renewing late must also include an additional $100 reinstatement fee.
- Resident producers holding a title line of authority are required to complete 16 hours of continuing education; at least three (3) of these hours must relate directly to ethics.
- Maryland Attorneys admitted to practice law in the State of Maryland by the Maryland Court of Appeals who hold a producer license to sell Title insurance, are exempt from the continuing education requirement. To qualify for the exemption attorneys must submit a Letter of Good Standing from the Maryland Court of Appeals (within 90 days from the date of issuance).
- Effective April 11, 2011, individual producer licenses expire every other year on the last day of the producer's birth month. Business entity licenses expire two (2) years from the date of issuance.
- Prometric is the Maryland Insurance Administration's current vendor for continuing education. You may view approved continuing education courses, your continuing education transcript, and other information regarding continuing education by visiting their website, www.prometric.com.
- Affidavits, bond continuation certificates, employer verification, waivers and/or letter of good standing must be submitted at each renewal cycle.
- Change of address or updates to a licensing record must be submitted prior to renewal application submission.
- Title Insurance Producer Independent Contractors (TIPIC) must submit an Affidavit of Title Insurance Producer Independent Contractors during or after application submission.
- Employees of Insurers must submit an employment verification letter on Insurer letterhead.
- Licensees may renew by completing and submitting the NAIC Uniform Renewal Application via paper. Individual applications may also be submitted through NIPR (www.nipr.com).
- Effective 05/01/2013 all Title Insurance Producer Firm applications for initial licenses and renewals must be submitted via paper. Please retrieve the Title Insurance Producer Firm Application Packet from the Title Insurance Producer section under the Producer tab on the MIA website.
- Paper applications are normally processed within 3-5 business days and should be mailed to:

The Maryland Insurance Administration
Attn: Producer Licensing
200 St. Paul Place, Suite 2700
Baltimore, Maryland 21202